AFRICA UPDATE

From: Pastor Keith Merriman: Report on Kenya (2/08/23)

Photo, left: Pastor Gilbert and the pastors in Nairobi (the white man is a visitor from Brethren Assembly Church)

Pastor Gilbert Amaswache (Kenya) recently traveled from Kipsaina to Nairobi to continue practorium training for our pastors in that great city (metro area 11 million!). Pastor Gilbert shared:

"I'm glad to report that I arrived safely home from Nairobi and that we had a good time with the brothers there. We had two days of training for pastors as we discussed on the importance of having a correct view of the basics of the Christian faith as preachers and Bible teachers and fellowshipped with the church on Sunday (where they met). We agreed that they will avail themselves for extensive training every quarter of the year in Kitale at Kipsaina. The next practorium training will be in the month of April."

Pastor Gilbert also has a group that meets weekly in Kipsaina. Please pray for these men to understand their theology and be faithful in their ministries.

Thanks to all who give and pray for the Africa ministry.
